PARIS	SH OF COFTON HACKETT AND BARNT GREEN
	PRAYER DIARY January 2022
50	prayer each day

www.www.ww
	Sat	1st	giving to God our prayers and hopes for the new year
	Sun	$2^{\text{nd}}$	Alex, Mari and family visiting St Andrew's today
	Mon	3 rd	the people of the Midwest of the US who recently suffered tornadoes which caused extreme damage
	Tue	4 th	the government's vision for the ongoing policies of the pandemic; God's giving vision to our leaders
	Wed	5 th	those recently bereaved; those who had an empty place at the table at Christmas and New Year
	Thu	6 th	refugees from Afghanistan; Afghan people who are hungry
	Fri	7 th	refugees from Syria and Iraq hoping to come to Europe via Belarus or across the English Channel using people smugglers; Syrian refugees in camps in neighbouring countries awaiting a safe political situation for returning home; refugees in the Kurdish region of Iraq whose homelands were taken over by IS
	Sat	8 th	all groups in Myanmar subject to human rights abuses and ethnic cleansing; safe conditions for all minority groups; people in Myanmar living with atrocities now revealed
	Sun	9 th	worship as God's family today
	Mon	10 th	the committee and members of Monday Fellowship
	Tue	11 th	the safety of our elderly members as winter progresses
	Wed	12 th	children and families travelling to school and work in wintry and dark weather
	Thu Fri	13th 14 th	those who are homeless with winter at its most severe climate: that the carbon emission targets will be honoured by all nations; considering every small change we can make to safeguard the planet's future; not allowing COP 26 to disappear from our consciousness

Sat	15 th	state leaders in UK, France and US with responsibility for continued arms supply to the coalition in Yemen; Yemeni people who continue to suffer the effects of war
Sun	16 th	those who have planned and lead worship and music today; families and leaders of Messy Church
Mon	17 th	people involved in staffing foodbanks; all using foodbanks; that the food will meet their needs
Tue	18 th	the work of PCC as it meets this evening
Wed	19 th	The Bishop of Coventry speaking about migrants: "family connections, linguistic considerations, and their trust in the deep traditions of British tolerance, sanctuary, and human rights will always make Britain a worthy prospect "
Thu	20 th	those at risk of gang violence in London and other cities; young people at risk where bladed weapons are routinely carried as a defence
Fri	21st	our members who are recovering from surgery and illness
Sat	22 nd	members who work hard and often unseen to serve our church; thanks for initiatives of being a continued and reliable Christian presence, of celebration and welcome
Sun	23 rd	words and music bringing joy as we worship God
Mon	24 th	the Uighur people of China whose lives are controlled by the state and who must work in a state-sponsored forced labour scheme
Tue	25 th	how we reflect our Christian faith as we help and volunteer
Wed	26 th	vaccines reaching the people of all countries; people who battle against poverty as well as the threat of the pandemic
Thu	$27^{th}$	innocent victims of power struggles in the world
Fri	28 <sup>h</sup>	God's plan for Cofton Hackett and Barnt Green as we look forward to the leadership of a new vicar
Sat	29 th	the continuation of the UK aid budget and the need to help poor communities across the world
Sun	30 th	parents of our younger families as we welcome them and the children to our church life
Mon	31st	thanks for lengthening days and the hope of spring

