

PARISH OF COFTON HACKETT AND BARNT GREEN
 PRAYER DIARY July 2024
 prayer each day

Mon	1 st	the new president of Mexico: strength for her leadership in many challenges both historic and unprecedented	Wed	17 th	those with difficulties within the family, whose extent may be unknown and unseen by friends around
Tue	2 nd	the people of India in a new term of office for Narendra Modi	Thu	18 th	all in this country struggling with low income, hunger and homelessness and worried about their economic future
Wed	3 rd	the people of Ukraine; our constancy in prayer; leaders in Russia having compassion on the loss of life and security; that the situation will not come to nuclear attack	Fri	19 th	the new government's plans for social care; how the care system covers sufferers of dementia and those in older age
Thu	4 th	the people of this country being motivated to vote	Sat	20 th	our people who are newly bereaved and all who still feel the loss of a loved one
Fri	5 th	young people dealing with their own safety and facing the decision whether to carry a bladed instrument; God's care of all our young people	Sun	21 st	Alex, Mari, Addy, Nathan and Joel in South Africa; that Alex's team would be strong in sharing the good news using radio; Mari as she recovers her health
Sat	6 th	the people of France now consolidating their political allegiances in a parliamentary election	Mon	22 nd	Stuart and Laxmi; God's blessing on their work for Nepalese people
Sun	7 th	First Church: leaders, children and parents	Tue	23 rd	honouring our responsibility to care for the planet; standing up for reminding the world of climate change and our own part in it; caring about avoiding waste and using energy responsibly
Mon	8 th	our newly-elected representatives meeting the challenges of forming a new government in the UK	Wed	24 th	our people who look for God's healing in their bodies and their lives; thanks for when we find new hope and help
Tue	9 th	all people displaced from their way of life; refugees arriving in this country; migrants in danger in the English Channel and the Mediterranean; victims of accidents at sea	Thu	25 th	children, families and carers as the summer holiday begins; young people awaiting exam results
Wed	10 th	that God will give skill, sympathy, resilience and strength to all who are caring for the sick	Fri	26 th	Rohingya Muslims in Cox's Bazar: that giving will increase to make aid possible and ongoing
Thu	11 th	God's compassion on the people of Gaza and Israel; an end to the fighting	Sat	27 th	generosity in giving – to the Foodbank, Birmingham City Mission, refugee organisations, for many needs of the world
Fri	12 th	thanks for the beauty of our environment	Sun	28 th	moments of worship and joy for all exploring St Michael's churchyard
Sat	13 th	God's care for us in older age; those living in care homes	Mon	29 th	family and friends travelling in Europe and further abroad
Sun	14 th	worship on this second Sunday	Tue	30 th	our lay readers: thanks for their dedication, for their work in keeping us together as a worshipping community; Andy as he leads in putting together worship and services
Mon	15 th	people in prison: their families; the staff who look after them	Wed	31 st	the teachers and Governors of St Andrew's school; their work in creating a safe learning environment; rest and renewal in the holiday
Tue	16 th	PCC meeting this evening

