

PARISH OF COFTON HACKETT AND BARNT GREEN

PRAYER DIARY July 2025

prayer each day

Tue	1 st	those endangered by the fighting between Iran and Israel
Wed	2 nd	residents in Gujarat, India affected by an air crash; British people who have lost loved ones; pray that the causes can be identified and future disaster avoided
Thu	3 rd	the people of Ukraine; our constancy in prayer; leaders in Russia having compassion on the loss of life and security; that leaders can respond to peace negotiations
Fri	4 th	God's compassion on the people of Gaza and Israel; an end to the fighting; the safety of health facilities and aid stations
Sat	5 th	young people dealing with their own safety and facing the decision whether to carry a bladed instrument; God's care of all our young people
Sun	6 th	First Church: leaders, children and parents
Mon	7 th	that, in this broken world, right and justice will prevail
Tue	8 th	the UK government meeting its challenges, honouring its decisions and responsibilities after one year in office
Wed	9 th	all people displaced from their way of life; refugees arriving in this country; migrants in danger in the English Channel; victims of accidents to small boats at sea
Thu	10 th	that God will give skill, sympathy and resilience to all who are caring for the sick
Fri	11 th	God's care for us in older age; those living in care homes
Sat	12 th	thanks for the beauty of our environment
Sun	13 th	generosity in giving – to the Foodbank, Birmingham City Mission, refugee organisations, for many needs of the world
Mon	14 th	our people who are newly bereaved and all who feel the loss of a loved one
Tue	15 th	the work of PCC; our PCC members

Wed	16 th	people in prison: their families; the staff who look after them
Thu	17 th	those with difficulties within the family, whose extent may be unknown and unseen by friends and neighbours
Fri	18 th	all in this country struggling with low income, hunger and homelessness and worried about their economic future
Sat	19 th	safety for teachers of St Andrew's school and friends visiting Malawi in the holiday, Fran, Manjit, Alice and Rosemary; God's hand on all they will learn
Sun	20 th	worship on this third Sunday
Mon	21 st	Alex, Mari, Addy, Nathan and Joel in South Africa; that Alex's team would be strong in sharing the good news using radio; Mari in her work on pregnancy counselling
Tue	22 nd	all involved in caring agencies working throughout the world
Wed	23 rd	honouring our responsibility to the planet; standing up for reminding the world of climate change and our own part in it; caring about waste and using energy responsibly
Thu	24 th	our people who look for God's healing in their bodies and their lives; thanks for when we find new hope and help
Fri	25 th	children, families and carers as the summer holiday begins; young people awaiting exam results
Sat	26 th	Rohingya Muslims in Cox's Bazar; many people in the world whose sufferings are not reported in the press
Sun	27 th	Andy and Lesley taking a break from the careful and thoughtful preparation of Messy Church
Mon	28 th	moments of worship and joy for all exploring St Michael's churchyard
Tue	29 th	family and friends travelling in Europe and further abroad
Wed	30 th	our lay readers: thanks for their dedication, for their work in keeping us together as a worshipping community; Andy as he leads in putting together worship and services
Thu	31 st	the teachers and Governors of St Andrew's school; rest and renewal in the holiday

