Our Parish Church is celebrating its centenary this year. Together with others, I have written a play about St Francis of Assisi for the occasion; my colleague Reader Mandy Nayak is taking part in it. We are due to perform it on Friday 14th November at 7 pm and Saturday 15th at 2:30 pm in church in Sycamore Road, tickets are £8 for adults and £5 for youngsters, available either through the Parish Office or at the door.

Monday Fellowship

The next Monday fellowship continues the theme of people who make sacrifices to help other people. The talk is entitled "Ordinary people doing extra ordinary things" It is about the RNLI and the volunteers from all walks of life who give of the time freely to help people in trouble at sea and often both parties are in danger. John Rittwood is the speaker at 2.30pm on Monday 13th October in the Parish Centre at 2.30. He will not only tell the story of the lifeboats but will also give us a visual show.

Working Parties at St Michaels – next Thursday – 16th October

Climate Crisis Action

While sales of non-dairy alternatives have soared in recent years, dairy milk remains a staple in many households. It is also one of the most wasted products. In the UK we throw millions of glasses away every day. To optimise shelf-life store milk from the point of purchase in the fridge at less than 5 degrees centigrade, and ideally not in the fridge door, as this is the warmest part.

Food Bank

The Pantry@ St Stephen's Our families are so thankful for the help provided by the generous giving of the congregations of St Stephen's, St Andrew's and St Michael's and to the volunteer pantry team and surplus collectors.

At the moment, the pantry is in need of pasta and rice - not whole grain please and jars of sauce. Also shower gel, shampoo and household cleaning products.

Message from Jo Griffin at the food bank: Please pass on a huge thank you to your congregation for their very generous harvest donations to the pantry. Everything that was sent is really needed and will help us keep serving our pantry families. We are very, very grateful. God bless you all. Jo
